

5/29/2019

Case: 2:19-cv-00378
Assigned To : Kimball, Dale A
Assign. Date : 5/30/2019
Description: Atherton v. Amtrak
Railroad et al

JUN 13 2019

U.S. District Court

D. MARK JONES, CLERK
BY DEPUTY CLERK

Salt Lake City, UT

Request Jury Trial
X Yes X No

Complaint

RECEIVED CLERK

MAY 30 2019

U.S. DISTRICT COURT

Arlene R. Atherton

v.
Amtrak Railroad, Officer Jared Bestunk,
Officer Edgar Hara Rifle Police Department.
Conductor of Train 5/22/2019 Rifle, CO - Amtrak.
Greenwood Springs Amtrak, Green River, CO Amtrak.
Statement of Claim. Americans with Disabilities Act 1990 - Civil enroute to Supreme Court filing. Claim unable to carry passengers due to conduct.
Atherton purchased ticket in Chicago & boarded Train. Journey was commenced. Passengers - Plaintiff Arlene R. Atherton enroute to Federal Courthouse for Supreme Court filing. Atherton (Plaintiff) has Traumatic Brain Injury 11/7/2011. Her life has been destroyed by the personal injury & legal battles. She was heard crying & Conductor claimed other passengers complained. Atherton (Plaintiff) was riding in the disability car with a valid disability ticket.

Atherton passed Denver, CO warned of similar problems she experienced in Chicago Federal Courthouse. At Rifle, CO - Conductor stopped train, called Rifle Police Edgar Lasa & Jerek Bor & back who descended Atherton & sent her on RATA bus to Glenwood Springs. Bus stopped at Glenwood Mall. The Amtrak Station closes at 5:00 PM. Atherton arrived after that time - forced to stay in Glenwood Springs overnight.

Atherton suffered damage financially by loss of Transportation. Forced to use financial resources for legal and personal support.

Atherton's journey delayed due to Arrest by Glenwood Springs Police.

Glenwood Springs Portland refused to Reboard Atherton against Company Policy to allow Journey to Continue.

Atherton spent $15<sup>00</sup> to Grand Junction Amtrak conductors also refused. Amtrak passage - de boarded her to Green River, UT. Sheriff C. Smith & A. Wall took her into custody further delay of journey.

Atherton seeks damages of $500,000 and up to 1.5 million for Supreme Court filing delayed.

Respectfully Submitted.

Arlene R. Atherton-Pro Se Arlene R. Atherton
17 E. Monroe
Chicago, IL 60603